

Profund welcome Trafalgar House Pensions Administration Limited to Third Party Administration Client base

10TH JANUARY 2012, London: Profund Solutions Limited (Profund), part of JLT's UK Employee Benefit business, has been appointed to supply its Aviary pension fund accounting software to Trafalgar House Pensions Administration Limited (THPA).

Jim Gallagher, Managing Director of Profund, said, "We are delighted to start the new year with the news of our appointment by THPA, which represents a prestigious and valued addition to our client portfolio. This demonstrates that Profund continue to be the pension software solution provider of choice for organisations who, like Trafalgar House, are intent on providing a quality service to their clients".

Speaking of their appointment of Profund, Richard Tartaglia, Chief Financial Officer, THPA said, "As a third-party administration company with a reputation for quality, innovation and experience we understand the need to ensure we continue to have the right tools in place to provide the very best available functionality to service our clients. Aviary will enable us to automate a number of processes that have previously been carried out manually, whilst producing SORP compliant financial statements, efficiently and effectively.

"At Trafalgar House we pride ourselves on our comprehensive implementation process and were pleased that Profund shared our philosophy, with a quality project delivered, on time and budget, with no adverse effect on our business as usual."

Jim Gallagher concludes, "I believe the continued use of Profund software solutions by the majority of third-party administrators in the UK speaks volumes for our commitment to the market. We continually strive to ensure that our software solutions include the processes and functionality that a modern pension department requires".
